DAILY LITERACY ACTIVITIES

Little Red Riding Hood

Ii for insect, make a 'i' sound - click here There are lots of insects in the woods! Sound out mum- m/u/m click here

Enjoy retelling the story with your adult and join in with what Little Red Riding Hood says through out the story. Make your voice high and sweet to become her.

Challenge

What might grandma say to the naughty wolf? Can you make your voice into a grandma voice i.e. croaky and weak? Can you draw/record what you think grandma says to the wolf?

DAILY MATHS ACTIVITIES

Count objects in a random layout click here

Collect a group of up to 5/10 objects found around your home to count with.

Using the objects, ask your adult to place a group in front of you, randomly, not in a straight line. Now, count the objects slowly using your counting finger - How many objects have you counted altogether?

Repeat this activity.

Challenge

There are 5 books in a box. 3 books were taken out of the box. How many books were left in the box? Use objects to find the answer or even use your fingers. Can you record/make marks to show how you got the answer?

THE WIDER CURRICULUM

Enjoy a walk through the park or a wooded area with your family. As you walk along the pathway, just like Little Red Riding Hood, look at the 'natural' environment around you. What do you see? Do you see any insects? What insects are they? What do you touch? What do you smell? What do you hear?

Can you copy off the sounds that you hear using your voices? Your adult can model the sounds for you to copy! Can you use your body to explore different ways of making sounds around you?

Challenge

'A listening moment'- (Listen to the sounds around you). Try and listen out for louder sounds first, Can you hear 3 different sounds? Can you remember the sounds you heard in order?

LOOKING AFTER YOURSELF!

It's Movie night!

Spend quality time with your family, by enjoying a movie night together. Treat yourself to goodies i.e. popcorn, sweets, chocolate or ice cream! Get cozy as you watch your movie by covering yourself in a blanket or by cuddling up to your teddy.

GET CREATIVE!

Paint with string!

Place red, blue and yellow paint in to bowls. Cut string in to different lengths and dip the string in to the bowls of paint. Next, create marks on paper using the painted string.

Look at how the colours change when they are mixed together.
Make orange- mix red and yellow.
Make purple- mix red and blue
Make green- mix blue and yellow

RHYME TIME!

Rhyme of the Week

Enjoy learning a new rhyme, 'Polly put the kettle on.'

Challenge

Can you change the words in the rhyme?

i.e. Polly put the tv/football/toaster on...
Lucie/Alfie take it off again...

UP FOR THE CHALLENGE?

A lovely neat and tidy bed!

With help from your adult, learn how to make your own bed.
